Wilson's Reply to Carranza a Warning

PRESIDENT WILL REFUSE
TO QUIT BANDIT CHASE.Announcement of New Vigorous Policy Toward Mexico is Made; Amba-
sador Asks Troops' Recall.BY ARTHUR SEARS HENNING.
[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]WASHINGTON, Aug. 21.—Vigorous protection to all lines and property along the entire border is the policy of the American Army from Brownsville to the Pacific.
This is part of the new and permanent policy of the United States toward Mexico, as announced to Congressman Hudsall of Texas and Senator Fall of New Mexico by Secretary Baker today.WASHINGTON, Aug. 21.—President Wilson will refuse to quit the demand of Carranza that American troops be withdrawn from Mexico, which they entered in pursuit of the bandits who held two American army aviators for ransom.According to administration officials, the American forces in Mexico are to remain only when they either have captured the bandits or given up the pursuit as futile.
The President is drafting a reply to the protest of Carranza that the latter terms an "invasion" of Mexico—a reply which Wilson is expected to make it clear that the course pursued by the United States in dealing with Mexico is not a threatened radical change of policy of which warn-ing Carranza last month.
The position is that of Mexico by American troops of the bandits does not constitute an invasion particularly of the south of Mexico, but a campaign of law and order in the border with 10,000 men that could be transported there within four hours. Campaign equipment, however, is deficient.Just what the President promised the French and British Premiers
in regard to Mexico is not known,
but it is taken for granted that it is indefinite. The general belief, however, is that if the President determines upon intervention it will be the result of future developments greatly aggravating the cumulative American grievances against Carranza.The Mexican government has been unable to accomplish anything looking to the release of Dr. A. Goetz,

French Airplane Lost.

PARIS, Aug. 21.—The French airplane Goliath, which was missing since it left Mogador, Morocco, for Dakar, last Saturday morning, generally was given up as lost in aviation circles today. It carried eight passengers.The Goliath left an airfield near Versailles on August 11
and arrived at Casa Blanca,
a distance of 1200 miles, the same day. After taking on machine guns, revolvers and rifles to be used against savage tribes if necessary, it left Casa Blanca on August 14 for Dakar, a distance of 1400 miles. It was forced to land at Mogador after crossing the Sahara. Since it left Mogador
the only word received from it was a wireless message last Saturday indicating that it was within sixty miles of Dakar.

arrived at the border today from Vera Cruz and reported to local Federal authorities that he had been held up on a train en route to Laredo and robbed of $10,000 cash and jewelry valued at $2000. He left tonight for Washington.Von Hoffman, who is an American citizen, said he was returning from a visit to his coffee plantation in the State

occurred and charged that it was committed by Carranza sol-PRESIDENT MAY

is Denied, but Must be Postponed.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

WASHINGTON, Aug. 21.—
President Wilson's long-delayed speaking tour of the country in the interest of the peace treaty and League of Nations is still indefinite.A report today that the trip
had been abandoned was denied at the White House, but no information was forthcoming as to when the trip would be taken or just where the President proposes to go.Ten days ago it was stated
the trip would begin about August 25. That is manifestly impossible because arrangements have not been made.Gen. Pershing's arrival home and the coming of the First Army Division which is to be paraded in New York and Washington with much ceremony now bid fair to further delay the tour. Officials here believe President
Wilson will wish to greet Gen.
Pershing personally.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

MARFA (Tex.) Aug. 21.—Four Mexican bandits were killed by American troops in Mexico yesterday, Capt. Leonard Matlack, who arrived here by airplane tonight, reported. They were surrounded in an adobe blockhouse that the Mexicans had constructed in a mountain pass.The bandits fought desperately when they found they were trapped. Two escaped.When the American troops approached the blockhouse with the intention of searching it for hidden bandits, the Mexicans opened fire from port holes.The fire was returned and the blockhouse charged by the American cavalry troops. Three of the four Mexicans killed have been identified as Jesus Janir, Francisco Janir and Jose Fuentes. The identity of the fourth bandit has not yet been ascertained.All four of the men are known to Capt. Matlack as bandits operating along the Big Bend border for years.The two men who escaped were pursued, but the trail was lost in the canyons.It is known that Jesus Renteria, leader of the outlaw band that captured Lieut. Harold G. Peterson and Paul H. Davis, American aviators, was not among the dead.Capt. Matlack said he passed a column of 200 Carranza troops below the border yesterday. The Carranza commander, Matlack reported, asked where the American troops were going. When he was informed that the Americans were pursuing bandits, who had held American aviators, the Carranza commander waved his hand and said: "Go ahead." No effort was made to hinder the punitive expedition.Receipt of a telegram from Gen.

troops and the American troops

time of the Pershing expedition into Mexico, as interpreted here, permits Mexican troops to come into the United States in pursuit of bandits who might cross to the American side of the border. The treaty is said to have originated at the time when American and Mexican troops were pursuing the Apache leader Geronimo back and forth between the two countries.The receipt of this telegram from

MAY BE FORERUNNER OF GENERAL MOVEMENTThe beginning of what was reported in railway circles to be a nation-wide walkout of steam railway trainmen to begin at noon today was staged here last night when all the yardmen, switchmen and local train handlers of the Southern Pacific, Salt Lake and Santa Fe railways struck without warning.Telegraphic advices from Cleveland, national headquarters for the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, received at midnight last night, declared that the report of an impending general strike could not be verified. Rail officials there doubted that such an order could have been made without their knowledge.The Southern Pacific switchmen went out first, 7 p.m., 350 strong. The Salt Lake and Santa Fe switchmen followed at 8:30. The Santa Fe lost 150 men and the Salt Lake only those at work at the time—fifteen men on three train crews. There are about 100 switchmen in the local Salt Lake yards who are not expected to report this morning. The engineers and firemen of switch engines for the Southern Pacific and Santa Fe followed the switchmen at 10 o'clock. Altogether, it is estimated by railway men that about 800 men went out. The Southern Pacific canceled all night train service, announcing that it hopes to resume service this morning. Santa Fe trains made shift to go out, but the service was delayed well into this morning. The Salt Lake sent out its one evening train and hopes to get its morning one away on schedule.

SUSPECTED STRIKE ORDER FOUND.

An order calling for a general strike of Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen on all steam and interurban railroads in the United States upon which members of the brotherhood are employed, was found at the River Station late last night by Southern Pacific officials, according to T. H. Williams, Assistant General Manager of the Southern Pacific.The order is said to have been embodied in a telegram to local brotherhood officials by Warren Stone, president, and W. G. Lee, vice-president, of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen. Southern Pacific officials said they were not in a position to say who received the message, but they declared that they believed it to be authentic and official.Credence to this report was given by the announcement that M. E. Montgomery, second vice-president of the brotherhood, who organized the Pacific Electric branch of the order, was in the city yesterday and that he addressed railroad men at the Labor Temple.Mr. Montgomery, who is at the Roslyn, denied last night any knowledge of the supposed general strike order, but declined to say for what purpose he is here. He staged the Pacific Electric strike of last year and is one of those against whom a Federal injunction against conducting a strike on the Pacific Electric is directed.KNOW NOTHING OF IT.
High railway officials here declared they had heard nothing of a proposed general strike up to the time the supposed order was picked up in the railway yards and are reluctant to believe that so gross a violation of the agreement of the brotherhood with the Railroad Administration will be made. They admitted, however, that the strike
of the yardmen was absolutely without warning and that they had no
inkling of it in advance.J. Ross Clark, second vice-president of the Salt Lake Route, stated
last night that his railroad administration will be made. They
admitted, however, that the strike
of the yardmen was absolutely with-
out warning and that they had no
inkling of it in advance.According to an unofficial report brought to the city by Gen. Pruneda last night, the pursuit is continuing over mountain peaks, down steep slopes
and through tiny mountain valleys,
where springs and water are scarce patches of the mountain farmers.By sunrise airplanes left the ground here for Presidio, sixty miles west, where a flying field base for the expedition has been established.AIRPLANES IN ACTION.
Landing there and getting gasoline and oil, the airplanes flew across the Rio Grande over the Pecos, near Ojinaga, along the Conchos River Valley, to pick up the trails. The cavalry resumed its work of scouting. Cavalry columns are searching out every canyon which could possibly be the hiding place of the bandits.The work of the aviators is considered extremely dangerous, because there are few landing fields
and the terrain is very rough.

SAN DIEGO, Aug. 21.—Col. A. J. Hanlon, commanding the army aviation forces at Rockwell Field, North Island, announced tonight that two aviators from the Ninth Aero Squadron, with base here, had been missing since 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon. They are Second Lieutenants Frederick B. Waterhouse of Wiscor, Idaho, and C. H. Connelly of San Diego.The two aviators, Lieut. Waterhouse acting as pilot, and Lieut. Connelly as observer on border patrol work, started from Yuma, Ariz., to San Diego, at 11:45 a.m. yesterday.Col. Hanlon said his conclusion was that the aviators had been forced to make a landing, possibly below
the Mexican border, near Jacumba.Fifteen machines were sent out from North Island today to try to find the missing flyers, but all returned without having found a trace of them.Little is known here concerning Lieut. Waterhouse and Connelly.
The young aviators recently came here to join the Ninth Aero Squadron, detailed to patrol the Mexican line between Tia Juana and Yuma.

running, and the number of taxicabs was entirely too small to cope with the situation. A score of women and children made special trips to the benches and remained there all night.Felix McGinnis, general passenger agent of the Southern Pacific Railway, advised those who had made
"pullman" reservations to turn them
in or get them extended for a day or two. Hundreds of people cashed in their tickets. Others pleaded with the officials to run the trains to the north so they could reach the bedrooms of the stricken wives, mothers or children.Appealed to turn them aside, declaring that the situation was beyond their control, at least temporarily.APPEAL TO WASHINGTON.
Mr. Williams, who is a Federal officer of the Railroad Administration, immediately called by long-distance telephone W. B. Scott of San Francisco, who is Federal manager of the Southern Pacific, telling him that a strike had been called and asking him to get in touch with authorities at Washington.Mr. Scott is said to have advised having trainmasters and other experienced train men switch the night trains together and get them to the station and left at 10 p.m. o'clock for Salt Lake City. The train had been made up before the yardmen walked out. No other difficulties arose out of the sudden walkout except trouble the train-men had in making up two freight trains.Supt. Thomas P. Cullen of the Salt Lake Route did not learn of the strike of the yard men until after they had left the yards. Immediately, he rushed from his home and went to the railroad yards to remedy conditions temporarily. Up to that time he had received no information that a strike of the yard men was pending.

ishable food distributors of Los Angeles are located, is served by the Pacific Electric Railroad Company, which is in position to perform its usual switching service to and from the ninety wholesale firms located in the terminal. The Pacific Electric employees, members of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen and Locomotive Engineers, are on strike.The Southern Pacific, Santa Fe and San Lake switching crews, employees of the Railroad Administration,
refuse as individuals to switch cars
to or from transfer tracks, neces-itating expensive teaming, delays in delivery and waste of perishable food products. Every hour's delay means heavy loss, therefore the Produce Exchange of Los Angeles officially requests you to immediately instruct steam line switching crews
to perform usual switching service to and from Pacific Electric transfer tracks.PRODUCE EXCHANGE OF LOS ANGELES, by Adrien Loeb, Pres-

the trainmen struck. No. 17, leaving at 6:15 p.m., was deserted by the trainmen at Burbank, and a train coming in from the north was deserted at Glendale. There being no interurban service to the city from either point, the company ordered the passengers brought to the city
by auto bus.Assistant General Manager Wil-

company would be able to get two sections of the Shore Line limited

PROVISIONAL AGREEMENT
Thirteen—There has been a provisional agreement as to the disposition of the German overseas possessions, whose confirmation and execution is dependent upon the approval of the League of Nations and the United States is party to that provisional agreement.
Fourteen—The only agreement between France and Great Britain with regard to African territory, of which I am cognizant, concerns the redposition of rights already possessed by those countries in that continent. The provisional agreement referred to in the preceding paragraph covers all the German overseas possessions in Africa as well as elsewhere.

SAAR LEFT SO LEAGUE.
Seventeen—The choice of the commission for the Saar Basin was left to the council of the League of Nations, because the Saar Basin is for fifteen years to be directly under the care and direction of the League of Nations.
Eighteen—Article LXXXIII does in effect provide that five of the members of the commission of seven to fix the boundaries between Poland and Czechoslovakia should be nominated by certain countries because there are five principal Allied and associated powers and the nomination of five representatives by those powers necessarily means the nomination of one representative by each of those powers.

GERMAN EX-EMPRESS SELECTS FUTURE HOME.
AMERONGEN, Tuesday, Aug. 19.—The former German Empress personally selected the "house of Doorn" which William Hohenzollern has purchased as the future home in which she and her husband hope to live the lives of country estate folk in Holland.
The former Empress has not yet seen "the house of Doorn," but it is anticipated in Amerongen that she will soon pay a visit to Doorn. The house, though rich in history and imposing in appearance, has only twelve rooms in addition to small chambers for servants.
It is not expected that the former Empress will leave Amerongen for three months.
The former Empress' health again is troubling her. Dr. Forstner made frequent visits to the castle of Amerongen yesterday and today.

CARNEGIE ESTATE WILL TOTAL FIFTY MILLIONS.
STEEL KING ONLY RETAINED ONE-TENTH OF GREAT FORTUNE HE HAD EARNED.
[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]
NEW YORK, Aug. 21.—Andrew Carnegie died worth $50,000,000 according to one of his executors. His will is to be offered for probate next week. Root, Clark, Buckner and Howland of 31 Nassau street are the attorneys representing the estate. Mr. Carnegie stipulated that the Home Trust Company of Hoboken, N. J., should act as executor without bond.

PROVISIONAL AGREEMENT
Thirteen—There has been a provisional agreement as to the disposition of the German overseas possessions, whose confirmation and execution is dependent upon the approval of the League of Nations and the United States is party to that provisional agreement.
Fourteen—The only agreement between France and Great Britain with regard to African territory, of which I am cognizant, concerns the redposition of rights already possessed by those countries in that continent. The provisional agreement referred to in the preceding paragraph covers all the German overseas possessions in Africa as well as elsewhere.

SAAR LEFT SO LEAGUE.
Seventeen—The choice of the commission for the Saar Basin was left to the council of the League of Nations, because the Saar Basin is for fifteen years to be directly under the care and direction of the League of Nations.
Eighteen—Article LXXXIII does in effect provide that five of the members of the commission of seven to fix the boundaries between Poland and Czechoslovakia should be nominated by certain countries because there are five principal Allied and associated powers and the nomination of five representatives by those powers necessarily means the nomination of one representative by each of those powers.

GERMAN EX-EMPRESS SELECTS FUTURE HOME.
AMERONGEN, Tuesday, Aug. 19.—The former German Empress personally selected the "house of Doorn" which William Hohenzollern has purchased as the future home in which she and her husband hope to live the lives of country estate folk in Holland.
The former Empress has not yet seen "the house of Doorn," but it is anticipated in Amerongen that she will soon pay a visit to Doorn. The house, though rich in history and imposing in appearance, has only twelve rooms in addition to small chambers for servants.
It is not expected that the former Empress will leave Amerongen for three months.
The former Empress' health again is troubling her. Dr. Forstner made frequent visits to the castle of Amerongen yesterday and today.

The Moment of Sale

Just when in a given sale is the actual moment of sale? Even the sale of minor amount require an unbelievably long period of consideration. Sometimes this is called the period of education. For example, some years ago an enthusiastic young man descended on a Western county fair with many novelties in whirling fans and other novelties. They didn't sell—the farmers wouldn't buy. They thought, instead, old stand-by: the inflated pigs that were with a squeak and jack-knives with pictures in the handles.

It is in the drama—"a year elapsed"—and lo! the self-same farmers bought the neglected novelties of the year before. Just when was the moment?

What does it occur in your line? Do you have to "educate" people to your commodity or is it standard accepted?

Don't underestimate the time necessary to sell your product.

BANDITS SLAIN BY AMERICANS.

Four Mexicans Killed in an

Daring Aviators Report Some Narrow Escapes.

In Mexico, it is necessary to fly close to the ground, where the bandits may fire on the aviators as they did Tuesday. Flyers returning long after dark last night to headquarters here reported many narrow escapes.

One aviator had flown down a narrow canyon under a shelving rock to see if the bandits were finding concealment from the aviators under a shelf. Another returned with his face covered by red blotches, caused by driving through a hailstorm in Mexico at high speed, the hailstones bruising him.

LIAISON WORK PERFECT. Aviators located all American columns in Mexico yesterday. Flyers also found the Mexican Federal column under Gen. Antonio Pruneda, near Cuchillo Parado, and reported the location of other small bodies of Carranza troops.

Few landings were made in Mexico. When the troops found a smooth landing place they placed a giant panel-shaped letter "T" on the ground for the guidance of the aviators. The aviators have been dropping orders to cavalry commanders from the air and returning to the Presidio base.

When the flyers left this morning they carried news bulletins furnished by The Associated Press, which they planned to drop for each cavalry troop operating in Mexico, to give them news of the outside world since they crossed the border.

Col. Langhorne, American army commander in the Big Bend district, today suggested to Commo Bengoechea, Mexican Consul at Presidio, Tex., that the Consul communicate with Gen. Pruneda, Mexican commander, who now is near Cuchillo Parado and suggest to Pruneda that American and Mexican troops co-operate in pursuing the bandits who will make a report to Gov. Hobbs.

The rangers announced their intention of crossing to join the American troops if possible.

MEXICAN PAPER SAYS
NATION IS "CORPSE."

WASHINGTON, Aug. 21.—The Mexican newspaper Excelsior comments on Ambassador Fletcher's extended stay in Washington and finds a connection between this and Lord Harnsworth's recent announcement that Great Britain would not send any diplomatic representative to Mexico unless the latter country changes its policy toward foreign capital. In a word, until Congress gives effect to Article XXVII of the constitution and settles the petroleum problem.

In an article captioned "The Nation Has the Appearance of an Enormous Corpse," Excelsior says: "Among the obstacles to better international relations are the articles of the constitution of Queretaro so inimical to foreign capital."

"The newspaper's caustic attempts of the constitutional convention of 1917 could not fail to bear this bitter fruit."

AMERICANS ROBBED BY MEXICANS ON CANAL.

BANDITS FIRE ON LAUNCHES
AND BOARD THOSE STOPPING;
ESCAPE WITH LOOT.

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)
MONTEREY (Mex.) Aug. 21.—While a party of officials of the Agui Petroleum Company, headed by Joseph Guffey, of New York, were on their way from Tampico to the oil fields below there, a few days, they were attacked by bandits and robbed. The trip was being made in five motor launches by way of the Intercoastal canal, when the bandits fired upon the first, which was occupied by Mr. Guffey, and other members of the party.

Instead of obeying the command to stop, Mr. Guffey ordered that full speed be put on. The bandits turned their attentions to the next two launches and boarded the vessels in true pirate style. The passengers were robbed of money and valuables. The two launches were following escapees by turning back and proceeding to a near-by village where the robbery was reported to the Mexican authorities.

Mr. Guffey is president of the Agui Petroleum Company, which is a subsidiary of the Atlantic Gulf and West Indies Steamship Company.

EXECUTE ASSAILANTS OF SAILORS.

GALVESTON (Tex.) Aug. 21.—Seven of the Mexican bandits who robbed sailors from the United States monitor Cheyenne off Tampico last month have been apprehended and put to death by the Carranza authorities, according to an official report from Gen. Pascual Gonzalez to Mexican Consul Miguel Fierro here, made public today. The report states the bandits had property of the sailors in their possession.

LAREDO (Tex.) Aug. 21.—Mexican bandits who robbed the American sailors in a launch from the U.S.S. Cheyenne off Tampico early in July, have been arrested by Carranza secret police in Dona Cecilia, a suburb of Tampico, according to information received here today.

It was also reported that one of the assailants of George N. McDonald, an American, had been arrested. The United States government had made urgent representations in connection with both affairs.

McDonald, who was believed to have been killed at Pueblo Viejo, was reported to have arrived at Tampico, in a press dispatch from Mexico City last Sunday. McDon-

REPORT AMENDMENTS
ON FOOD BILL TODAY.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)
BOSTON, Aug. 21.—Amendments to the Food Control Act imposing a $5000 fine and imprisonment for two years for profiteering were ordered favorably reported today by the House Agriculture Committee.

The amendments probably will be considered by the House tomorrow. The legislation was proposed by Atty.-Gen. Palmer and extends the terms of the act to include among the list of necessities "wearing apparel, containers of food, feed or fertilizers, fuel oil, and natural gas."

The amendment granting price-fixing power to President Wilson was eliminated upon the suggestion of the Attorney-General, who told the committee yesterday that such power was "inapplicable in the present fight against high prices."

Retailers, previously exempted under the act, now are liable to prosecution for violations, but farmers and farmers' co-operative associations are exempted.

WILSON ASKED FOR POINTS.
President Wilson is asked in a resolution introduced today by Representative Clegg of Minnesota, to furnish such information as may be in the possession of the Federal Trade Commission which will identify the proportion that labor cost forms in the total cost of production of coal, steel, copper, meat, canned goods and other necessities.

The resolution was introduced at the request of the National Federation of Federal Employees, which announced that the information would "effectually dispose of the vicious fallacy that labor costs represent the chief item in the increased cost of living."

Representative Maccracker, Republican, New York, in a statement today explaining his resolution calling for an explanation of the activities of the Department of Justice under the food laws, said: "Certain men refuse to submit to graceful bantering in their own meeting place to cover laxity and inefficiency of members of the Cabinet."

PRISON FARE URGED.
"The thick hide of food manipulators cannot be pierced by polished shafts of rhetoric hurled from high places," he said. "Prison fare is the food that will nourish their almost dead sense of concern for fellow men."

Food Administration officials notified Atty.-Gen. Palmer today that they were prepared to revoke the license of any licensed dealer in sugar after a hearing by the Department of Justice had proved violation of the regulations provided in the Food Control Act.

War Department distributing centers, through which surplus war materials are sold, were instructed today to discontinue the sale of army blankets. It was explained that the distribution was not as wide as had been hoped for, that to give all an equal opportunity to purchase the blankets, a new distribution system would be worked out.

REBELS HOLD MICHOACAN.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)
EL PASO, Aug. 21.—Rebels under Gordiano Guzman are masters of life and property in parts of the State of Michoacan, according to Excelsior, a Mexico City newspaper, dated August 13.

Federal forces, it is said, have made no effort to pursue the rebel chiefs, who are reported particularly strong in the extensive district of Arizaga. Commerce and agriculture are demoralized as a result of Guzman's depredations, the article says.

Long, who was killed in the explosion of the city's gasometer, was charged with the use of public funds for the purchase of tires and gasoline for the city's fire engine. The charges were made by the city's attorney, J. C. Conner, who was also the justice of the peace.

SOME HOPE TO SETTLE STRIKE.

Possible Early Settlement by Mediation Board.

Los Angeles Railway Chiefs State Position Today.

Men Can Return to Work as New Employees.

Some hope for an early settlement of the strike of Los Angeles Railway employees was held today following conferences between the Mayor's Industrial Mediation Board and committees representing the strikers and the railway company.

Officials of the railway company declined last night to state what their answer will be, but their position has already been concisely defined and there appears to be no reason to suppose that they will depart from it.

It is very doubtful if any of the known union agitators will be taken back on any terms. The company will probably make certain concessions having to do with better working conditions if the strikers are able to suggest better ones than their own.

POLICE TO END MOBBING.

All Strikers' Gatherings Ordered Broken up; Force on Twelve-Hour Shifts.

The entire police department was put on a special strike footing yesterday by orders of Chief Home that all police officers will work a twelve-hour shift during the emergency, that police details be increased at car barns and other places where breaches of the peace have occurred, and that all gatherings of strikers, no matter where they collect, be broken up.

Chief Home also issued orders yesterday for the organization of a group of flying squadrons to be held at all police stations, with automobiles, to be ready to dash to any point where strikers attempt to riot.

Chief Home instituted a system of holding the department commanders accountable for all rioting and disturbances in their districts, and by order declared division commanders will be called to his office if strike troubles are allowed to grow in their districts.

Chief Home last night, stated that he was doing his best to stamp out all rioting in this strike.

The prominent attorney declared that he never made a demand for the arrest of Mrs. Maud Kaffitz as a principal in the crime and that no such demand was in his mind.

Mr. Lawler came to the Hall of Records accompanied by his male nurse. He had the same engaging smile when his friends failed to recognize him. His face was as rosy as ever, but with his black, curly locks shorn off, his appearance was altered, and some of his oldest friends failed to recognize him.

The People and Their Troubles

Congressmen Who Aimed Luxury Taxes Were Bad Shots.

BY JANE DIXON.

You may tempt your upper classes with your splendid dress-gowns. But have you heard the full roll of this rollicking little melody?

I did. It was down in one of those professionally Bohemian places so frequent in Greenwich Village.

Many sane and settled apartment dwellers from the upper west side—men and women accustomed to tied bathrobes and a unchipped china—were frolicking in the glow of a little stage, watching the inmates of the village reform and being "terribly thrilled."

Village Bobbie Edwards, who through the village impressionists has become a "walking god," was mounting a chair well in the center of the stage, he chanted the melancholy "Annet the poor 'walking god'."

The pathos Bobby can put into a sympathetic theme! Before he had half-finished, guests were weeping into their "milkshakes," the while they smoked palms loudly in behalf of more punishment.

Those well-fed, fat-waisted guests just loved to hear of the perils, trials and tribulations of the unfortunate sister who tells. Misery has a penchant for company, and no one could listen to the wail of Bobby without being utterly and entirely miserable. It was meant they should be. More in vogue to drown dull sorrow.

Bobby assured us, in his most soulful tenor, that heaven was going to look out for these unfortunate, down-trodden creatures who must work for a living.

"Heaven may take care of us," says Miss Marion Taylor, a brilliant example of the girl toiler arrived at success. "But Congress surely will not."

"Don't tell me the honorable gentlemen down at the capital are trying to interfere with the mandates of the celestial blue," I begged.

"I can't say who else they are interfering with, but they certainly are making things difficult for the girl who works," declared Miss Taylor.

Then she told me all about it. She can tell a thing or two, and with authority, Miss Taylor. Ever since she left grammar school she has been making her way in this merry world. At an age when most girls are letting their skirts down from the knees to shoe tops and gliding over their first dance program, Marion Taylor decided she would become an expert in clothes for women. She went in with a will. Today she can tell you the proprieties of dress down to the last pearl button.

"It's the luxury tax," sighed the champion of her kind, twirling a silk tassel on the cash of her smart black satin frock. "That is the salt in our life cream."

WHOM THE TAX HITS. "Those lawmakers down in Washington call it the luxury tax, but they don't go on to tell whom the luxury tax hits. They simply say if you pay more than this and that for this and so, the government will charge you extra for your extravagance."

"In other words, if you insist on buying good materials, you must pay a bonus for your thrift. I guess no one will deny the fact that the wisest economy in the world is good material, good workmanship."

"We are told if we pay $2 or more for a pair of silk stockings we will be taxed, and we are. Yet if we buy silk stockings for less than $2, a pair and darn up the holes rather than to purchase one pair at $2 and have regular stockings."

"Perhaps Congress figured only the women of wealth wore expensive garments and hence they alone would be affected." One had to suggest something soothing. The revolutionary flag was flaming high in Miss Taylor's cheeks.

"Yes, and perhaps Congress was wrong. If it figured that way," was the reply. "There is no better dressed girl on earth than the American working girl. Why shouldn't she be? Can you name any girl who deserves the good things of life more than the girl who honestly earns them?"

"What does a nickel or a dime or a quarter mean to the woman with a charge account at her command and a check book in her gold mesh bag? Good clothes are no luxury to her. Half the time she never even stops to inquire the price of the thing she buys. She merely sees it, it strikes her fancy. She orders it, she gets it, and she wears it."

"But the girl who skips a luncheon or two to possess a pretty blouse, the woman who drives her weary body to work in a dress that collects 'overtone' and buy first-class leather boots or a warm fur piece for her throat—she is the victim who can tell you whether or not the luxury tax squeezes her purse."

"And toilet articles!" Here the speaker fairly exploded with the righteousness of her cause. "I could tell you by the infection that toilet articles were bound to be important in the life of a working girl."

"Who ever heard of an heiress buying cheap perfume or inferior face powder?"

"Every girl; whether she works for her money or has it handed to her in gold by papa, wants and will have dainty toilet accessories on her dressing table."

"I was pleading our cause with a man of good common sense not long ago," the speaker said. "And what do you think he said? 'The girl who works has no right to make herself up like an actress.'"

"What's the use when men are so stupid? I might have told this man the women of his own family were addicted to the powder, rouge, and the lip stick. They are experts in the use of the mascara brush and the eye-pencil. Poor, stupid father, never even suspecting he believes it is just their natural bloom and beauty."

"A girl has every right to improve her looks to any extent she can. She is entitled to appear at her best in business and society. A neat, well-dressed, carefully-groomed girl is an asset to any progressive business concern. Just because she must play a typewriter instead of a baby grand piano is no sign she should have a shiny nose."

"Of course, the girl who wears their make-up boxes to the extreme. The offenders are not limited to working girls, however. In fact, you will find them everywhere in the minority. Tea rooms of fashionable hotels, Fifth avenue at promenade hour, veranda of a smart country club house, ballroom of an exclusive summer hotel, any or all of these will offer more vividness, more caricatures even, by way of artificiality, than Park row at noon-time, Times Square at midnight or Coney Island on Sunday."

"The woman of wealth can always afford to be as daring as she likes. The woman who works sometimes likes to be as daring as she can afford."

"Why encourage the girls to ruin their skins with cheap powder, to offend good taste with cheap perfumes, to neglect their nails, their hair, their teeth, their bodies, because they can't afford to take proper care of them?"

As a parting shot Miss Taylor aimed the big gun of her argument in the direction of Washington and fired away gleefully.

"A certain Senator from one of the Western States was approached on the subject of the luxury tax as related to working girls," she smiled. "The hard-shell old lawmaker shifted his cud of chewing tobacco from one cheek to the other and aimed the overflow at the handsome rug on the floor of his office in the Senatorial chambers."

"How's that for thrift?" she asked. "The Senator, who was a working girl's aim to imitate the rich, damn it, let them pay for it!"

It would be interesting to know if there is a luxury tax on the cleaning of Senatorial carpets.

You win, Miss Taylor. Or if you haven't won up to now, you ought to, mighty soon.

Flight over the question of sustaining the Mayor's veto of the new paving specifications ordinance is expected at 1:30 o'clock this afternoon before the committee of the whole of the City Council. A canvass of the situation yesterday indicated that unless conditions and opinions changed, the Mayor's veto would be sustained, but only after a hard fight and the exchange of much exhorting language.

Property Owners' Protective League is expected to be represented today, with Herbert L. Cornish, its chairman, as its chief spokesman.

The league is in favor of the Council's sustaining the veto, and opposes the city's using Warrenton-bitulithio paving. The Mayor is expected to use all of his persuasive power to get the use of all patented paving by the city.

The Public Works Committee yesterday conferred with members of the Board of Public Works and city sewer pipe contractors. The city pipe people agreed, in order to hasten the construction of city sewers, to bid for a period of ninety to 100 days on new sewers, provided they can use pipe already made up, in accordance with city specifications, and they agreed not to bid on new sewers while the emergency exists, as they owe the city $1,000 of pipe on uncompleted contracts. The City Council will take up the question today of permitting the city sewer pipe men to build city sewers, in view of the city pipe contractors' statements made yesterday.

LONG-TIME RESIDENT IS TAKEN BY DEATH.

Mrs. H. C. Guitau of the Horton Apartments, West Adams street, passed away early yesterday morning, following an attack of paralysis the day before. She leaves a husband, H. C. Guitau, a daughter, Mrs. Benjamin Johnson of Coronado.

Mrs. Johnson was visiting her mother when the latter was taken ill, having taken rooms at the Alexandria for a few days. The funeral services will be private, and will be held at Breese Bros' undertaking rooms, tomorrow morning.

The funeral, Mr. Guitau, Mrs. Johnson and Mrs. Johnson's daughter, Mrs. Hugh Brown, will go to Coronado. Mrs. Guitau was 65 years old and had been a resident of Los Angeles for twenty-seven years and had a wide circle of friends.

MORE DOG TAX MEN.

Municipal Efficiency Director J. E. McQuinn has before him the problem to decide whether or not the dog population of the city has increased enough to justify the hiring of four additional dog tax inspectors for a period of six months. The Humane Animal Commission says that the inspectors are needed on account of the growth of the city, and declares that the inspectors will be able to bring in sufficient overdue dog tax money to pay their salaries, which would amount to $12,000.

EX-ANGELO Pastor Takes a Young Chorister as Bride.

Rev. James W. Kramer, up to three and a half years ago pastor of the Central Baptist Church, this city, and now holding a similar charge in San Jose, is reported to have got a marriage license in Oakland yesterday for himself and a 20-year-old girl, choir singer, Miss Ida Peffon, who attends his church. Mr. Kramer is nearly three times as old as the bride.

GETS PROBATION.

In Judge Taft's court yesterday Carl Girardot, who had pleaded guilty to the charge of burglary, was given probation of two years. Arthur McGilla also pleaded guilty to burglary, and the matter of his probation and sentence will be considered by the court, September 15.

REPORTS UPON LOCAL FEDERAL INQUIRY EXPECTED TODAY.

Three thousand pounds of bacon, turned over by the Federal government to the city for sale to the public, will be sold beginning at 9 o'clock this morning at the following stations: 241 South Broadway, 137 West Temple street, Main and Manchester streets, and First and Chicago streets.

Because of the government sale of army food stores to the public by parcel post, Mayor Snyder decided yesterday that it would be advisable for the city to postpone the purchase of miscellaneous food supplies until the government concludes its direct sale. Duplication of food distribution work will thus be avoided. The sale of surplus stores by parcel post will continue at least another month, city officials say.

While the city stands ready to buy proffered surplus stores and sell them by parcel post, it is not to compete with the Federal government nor to risk the city's money in purchasing for resale goods that the public is now buying through the postoffice.

The odds and ends of the first consignment of food sent by the War Department to be disposed of through the local postoffice were practically cleaned up yesterday by Assistant Postmaster Foster. All that was left was the bacon the city will handle today.

While city officials state that sales through the parcel post will go on for at least a month yet, post-office heads did not know officially yesterday whether there will be any more direct sales here. Unless the present programme is changed, however, there will be no more direct sales here. The line of action Mr. O'Connor will take in regard to allegations of hoarding and profiteering will not be definitely determined until these reports are in his hands.

The remedy. LOS ANGELES, Aug. 19.—[To the Editor of The Times:] In this situation about the 'profits', it seems not to have occurred to most people that we have the remedy in our hands, to a certain extent. Women, who do the buying, can help to bring prices down by a very simple method—refuse to buy food offered at extortionate rates, and tell the retailer why you won't take it. It isn't advisable either, to be any too good-natured about it. The great trouble with the American public is that it is too good-natured. Simply say "I don't want it—the price is unreasonable. We have been robbed long enough." It is impossible, of course, to cut out all the foods which have been cornered by the packers—meat, butter, eggs, beans, etc.—but we can eliminate quite a few of them. If the government will co-operate by forbidding the storing of food, beyond a certain point, the men responsible for the present state of affairs stand to lose some money—which will be a very excellent thing. By the way, I often wonder how the packers succeeded in cornering the food supply without anyone in the government knowing anything about it? Or is it possible that they do know, and won't act on their knowledge? As everyone knows, the food supply of this country is in the hands of a few men (if you can call them men.) These food Kaisers seem to have as large an ambition commercially as the former Kaiser of Germany had politically. If they want, however, any really reliable data as to how far it is possible to conquer the world—and also as to what happens when Americans DO get mad—they might ask Wilhelm Hohenzollern. He knows—now. You may have noted an item from one of the New York papers, recently, giving the percentage—a large one—of the New York school children, who, because the prices of food were too high to enable their parents to feed them adequately, were suffering from malnutrition (which is a long word for plain "hunger"). To such an extent that they required immediate attention. If this is not murder, what is? We cannot shoot the profiteers (unfortunately.) The Bolshevik idea of violence will not do us any good. But we can, legally, send them to jail for long years at hard labor. And, sooner or later, they are going there—as soon as the government realizes that the American people have reached their limit of good nature, and are now in a condition of mind where it will not pay anyone to attempt to fool or rob them any longer. MRS. FAITH BOYCE BOHRNS.

House-Hunting. LOS ANGELES.—[To the Editor of The Times:] My mother has taken me all over the city to look for an apartment. They are all so pretty, but we can't get into one on account of me. What will they do with me? Throw me in ash can like they did Judy in "Daddy Long Legs"? Do they think that children should live in the street? Were they never children in their lives? Your little friend, MILDRED MILLER.

Germany on Warpath. LOS ANGELES, Aug. 19.—[To the Editor of The Times:] Germany is still out on the warpath, not with guns and banners, but in a far more dangerous manner. She is the parent of anarchy, the propagator of lies and treason. If this government does not wake to its duty soon there will be more violence here than Berlin has ever reported. Why is this hellish Nyberg-Nortveit allowed to exist in this country? I heard, in 1917, many men talk of revolution in this country, one that would make the French revolution look like a kindergarten's picnic. I even heard one man who belonged to the old Seventh Regiment say that if ordered out on duty in time of trouble that he would shoot his officers at once as any sign of developed. I closed his mouth by informing him that in event of the militia being ordered out, the I would at once report his remark and see that he remained behind bars until the fuss was over. In 1918 I saw his strike in Portland, conducted by seven men of the agitator class, with thousands of dupes. Not one of the seven was even a citizen, and all were vile habit and speech. Are we to submit tamely to domination by anarchists, profiteering packers and other scoundrels, or are we to be American once more? E. E. HARRIMAN.

More Bacon to Be Sold Today. City Offers Three Thousand Pounds to the Public. Other Government Food not to be Handled Now. Reports Upon Local Federal Inquiry Expected Today.

Three thousand pounds of bacon, turned over by the Federal government to the city for sale to the public, will be sold beginning at 9 o'clock this morning at the following stations: 241 South Broadway, 137 West Temple street, Main and Manchester streets, and First and Chicago streets.

Because of the government sale of army food stores to the public by parcel post, Mayor Snyder decided yesterday that it would be advisable for the city to postpone the purchase of miscellaneous food supplies until the government concludes its direct sale. Duplication of food distribution work will thus be avoided. The sale of surplus stores by parcel post will continue at least another month, city officials say.

While the city stands ready to buy proffered surplus stores and sell them by parcel post, it is not to compete with the Federal government nor to risk the city's money in purchasing for resale goods that the public is now buying through the postoffice.

The odds and ends of the first consignment of food sent by the War Department to be disposed of through the local postoffice were practically cleaned up yesterday by Assistant Postmaster Foster. All that was left was the bacon the city will handle today.

While city officials state that sales through the parcel post will go on for at least a month yet, post-office heads did not know officially yesterday whether there will be any more direct sales here. Unless the present programme is changed, however, there will be no more direct sales here. The line of action Mr. O'Connor will take in regard to allegations of hoarding and profiteering will not be definitely determined until these reports are in his hands.

When does the next boat leave for Yap?

It is reported that costs of the war are higher this year than ever.

So far the high-priced movie stars have not struck for advanced wages.

The question is, will the government be able to scramble the money?

That ransom paid the Mexican bandits ought to have been in the federal treasury.

If the church rolls were purged of the names of the profiteers, the church ought to help a lot.

The ex-Kaiser has purchased a home in Holland. Possibly the Kaiser was due at Amerongen.

The Plumb plan for reviving the American railways seems to have cast a shadow at the first quarter.

"Tanks Sent to Border," so runs a headline. Where do they get the tanks with nothing but 2.75 per cent interest?

There is much to be thankful for. Battling Rob Le Follette has not given his view of the covenant nations.

And Republican Senators who are tending to conference with President Wilson who intended to remain in the United States.

Another "crisis" looms in the East; but whether it is the old crisis or a new one has not been decided.

But in this fight against the League of Nations it is possible that the League will not be the Swift.

No wonder there is more trouble in Turkey. The account of the Turkish revolution is just what the name. That is, enough to break a riot.

The activity of Atty-Gen. Palmer in the fight against the League of Nations might be used to advantage.

The government has 110,000 soldiers for sale. Speaking of soldiers, we can see why the League of Nations is not so popular.

The daylight saving law has been repealed. In spite of the fact that President Wilson. The way to things you want in this world is to be an American farmer.

Howard Chandler Christy, the famous illustrator, is married. He is doing a lot of free-hand work in his matrimonial affairs.

Our own "Gus" Daniels is being sent to the front. The Japanese government might give him the once over to see if it is worth meeting our own "Gus".

It now transpires that Bela Kun, the renegade agitator, is accused of a fortune while he is in the head of affairs in that country.

In other words, that Bela Kun played entirely too "reformers" to do.

It has been shown that the renegade King of Hungary is worth millions of dollars deposited in the banks of Switzerland.

Regular is all its life. The regular is all its life. The regular is all its life.

And now the actors are on the stage. We have been of the opinion that these have often been seen when the audience might be seen.

Announcer: Gentlemen, the bout of the evening will be a high Cost of Living for an unnumbered rounds.

If there is to be an inventory of the men cost of living, a thorough one, not only to the household of the poor, but to the whole nation, it is to be a large scale, but to the whole nation, it is to be a large scale.

That Plumb plan for railroad ownership will be a good thing. The government has been up all the manufacturing companies, farms, mines, etc.

Use of bonds and turn the workmen to run for the benefit? We didn't get the benefit?

ANNO. New moon over the hills. The deep quiet of a country. Summer raindrops on dry leaves.

Jays like those over the hills. New moon over the hills. The deep quiet of a country.

Sound of children's voices. Fond looks of love, and tender care. Greeting. These southern stars.

I have roamed through the mountains and kingdoms. Loved in moonlight and in the sun. Yet still I love the night.

Freedom with an open heart. Come forth with an open heart. Let us roam.

THEY'RE OFF AT ASCOT PARK.

BY ED O'MALLEY.

"Oh, boy—just look at that baby paper to get the entries and the stumps at the sky to see whether the old mud lark you have had stowed up your sleeve for a month has a chance to flick a merry hoof in his chosen soil."

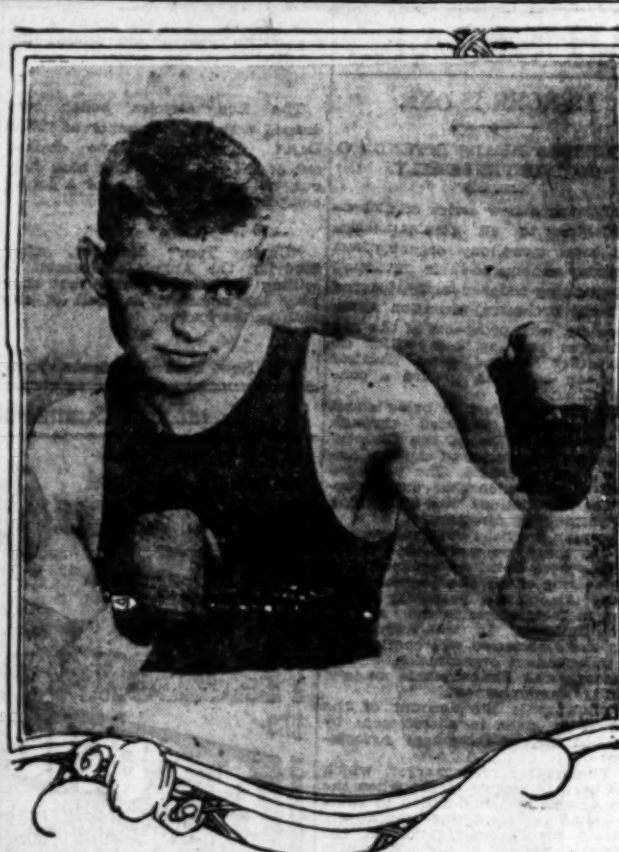

And then visions of a long baby with a few bucks "on the nose" and the mid old long baby just a buckjumping down the stretch six lengths to the good and you there in the grand stand bleating your lungs out to "come on" and wiley's birthday present blinking in front of your eyes and all the world just a swimming gloriously for your own delectation.

BACK AGAIN.

Yea bo—the mighty thoroughbred bids fair to come back into his own in Los Angeles and the man that is to rehabilitate him in all his pristine glory is no other than George R. Bentele the well-known automobile man. He is going into the matter on a big scale and will have some of the best thoroughbred horses races with his Stampede which he will pull off at the Ascot speedway October 10, 11 and 12. On each of these days there will be three events for the thoroughbreds, ranging in distances from six furlongs to one and one-half miles.

INTEREST GREAT.

At first the horse-racing was planned as only incident in the big programme for the Stampede.

Young Ketchell, a lightweight corner, who clashes with Fred Burrows tonight at the Long Beach Silver Spray Arena. This likely lad has defeated some of the best boys in California and is fast winning a reputation for himself as a high-class boxer.

to one and one-half miles. On the night of Saturday, October 11, Mr. Bentele will spring the first horse racing under electric lights ever given in California.

RICH PRIZES.

In addition to the rich prize list which will be offered to the contestants in the Stampede, there will be $1000 hung up for the running events of the horse sport at the historic plant. The "hoss" card was completed yesterday by Chairman George R. Bentele who has been in touch with some veteran expert handicappers who will have this phase in charge. The day races will be run over the seven-furlong course which has been constructed just inside the paved motor course.

SOME RACES.

The Saturday afternoon races will be the Old Mission stakes, a sprint of five furlongs, the mile Los Angeles sweepstakes and the Pasadena handicap of seven furlongs. The Saturday night contests will be one-half mile each, or four times around the specially lighted track. The Electra handicap, the Hotel Van Nuys cup dash and the Venice sprint will constitute the novel programme under the bright arcs.

ASCOT DERBY.

The Sunday programme will be featured by a revival of the old Ascot derby. This will be the longest race of the Stampede, being carded at a mile and one-eighth. Every mail is bringing in queries from horsemen who now are pointing their stables toward the thirty-day meet at Reno and the fair at Sacramento, Fresno and Phoenix. There will be some attractive money all along the line with the largest amount awaiting them at Ascot. In addition to the Stampede, Los Angeles will have $1000 more for the stable owners as there will be that amount for them at the live stock show which will be held here shortly after the Stampede.

PICKFORD PLANS.

LITTLE MARY SOON TO START

"POLLYANNA" FEATURE.

By Grace Kingsley.

When Mary Pickford has finished her present picture, John Fox, Jr.'s "The Heart of the Hills," she will have completed her contract with the First National Exhibitors' Circuit. This she expects to accomplish about September 1, following which she will take a short vacation, and will then be ready to commence work on her first production for the United Artists Corporation.

The first picture Miss Pickford will make for the United Artists will be a film version of "Pollyanna," the play which has proven a best-seller in all the theaters across the country during the past few seasons. "Pollyanna" also was a story for young people in book form, and as such proved a popular success.

The picture will be made at the Brumby studios. Just who will direct is not yet settled. It being understood that Sid Franklin's present plans are to ally himself with another company.

Miss Pickford is too busy herself building her new home at Santa Monica during her short vacation, and she threatens to wear overalls and hose the workmen around. However, she will commence work on "Pollyanna" about the middle of September.

Helen Jerome Eddy is planning a trip to Chicago after she has finished her part in "The Dragon Daughter," with Sessue Hayakawa. Miss Eddy, as every one knows, is almost as interested in the stage as she is in films, and she wants to visit the different theaters of Chicago, and more especially the new Arts and Crafts Theater, that she may study their methods and make use of them in her work at the Hollywood Community Theater.

MUSICAL.

MERGER IS OFF.

ORCHESTRA HEADS INTEND TO GO INDEPENDENTLY.

Following a new series of dickering looking to an amalgamation, both local symphony organizations yesterday announced their intention of continuing independently, leaving the local orchestral situation again in the air, with prospects of the two orchestras running competition to each other unless some further steps can be taken toward a consolidation.

The present effort to bring about a merger was instituted through the instrumentality of the Citizens' Executive Committee of the Los Angeles Festival Board. The principal point of difference that arose during the negotiations was concerning the naming of directors.

The plan has been under discussion for the past two weeks, and negotiations were definitely broken off at the meeting of the Los Angeles Symphony Association yesterday afternoon in their offices in the Auditorium Building. It was announced that the association will continue as an independent organization. Simultaneously the Philharmonic made a similar announcement.

Following is the account of the merger as given in a statement by the Los Angeles Symphony Association:

"The matter of a merger, which had been ostensibly closed when the two associations had failed to come to an agreement, was tentatively reopened for reconsideration at the instance of the Citizens' Executive Committee of the Los Angeles Festival Board. Plans were formulated by the Los Angeles Symphony Association, which were satisfactory to this neutral committee, and these terms were transmitted to Mr. Clark.

"In these terms the Los Angeles Symphony Association accepted all details as proposed by Mr. Clark, with the exception of that portion wherein Mr. Clark stipulated for himself the naming of four of the directors of the proposed merged organization, permitting the Los Angeles Symphony Association the privilege of naming but three, and thus giving Mr. Clark the control of the board.

"The terms as transmitted to Mr. Clark by the Citizens' Executive Committee, acting as a board of arbitration, modified the naming of the board of directors as follows: Three to be named by the Los Angeles Symphony Association, three by the Citizens' Executive Committee.

"This latter proposition Mr. Clark has refused to consider, insisting emphatically upon his original plan, which would give him control of the board of directors.

"Following the meeting yesterday of the Los Angeles Symphony Association's board of directors, at which it was voted to drop all further negotiations for a merger and to continue the Los Angeles Symphony Orchestra as an independent body, Mr. J. T. Fitzgerald, vice-president, made the following statement:

"The Los Angeles Symphony Association thoroughly appreciates the desirability from an unselfish standpoint of such a merger as was contemplated, and appreciates the earnest and intelligent efforts on the part of the Citizens' Executive Committee to bring it about.

"The association will continue with its plans for a season of concerts this year and every year, which will be considered the highest expectancy artistically."

The Philharmonic Orchestra management issued the following statement: "The Los Angeles Symphony Orchestra management made an offer some time ago to W. A. Clark, Jr., who had announced the formation of a new symphony orchestra to be called the Philharmonic; this was not considered reasonable by us, and was not acceptable to Mr. Clark."

"In consideration of a request from the executive board of the Los Angeles Festival Committee that the Philharmonic make an offer of amalgamation, Mr. Clark stated the terms that would be acceptable; these were today refused by the Los Angeles Symphony Orchestra, therefore the Philharmonic Orchestra will proceed as originally outlined.

"Mr. Clark assented to a reasonable and fair plan of merger between the two symphony organizations under the name Los Angeles Symphony Orchestra, insisting, however, that he was under the proposed plan individually contributing $100,000 against a possible $75,000 to be contributed by the others in working out the proposed merger. He should be permitted to name four out of seven directors of the proposed organization."
